21 MOU3/11 EXTERNAL SERVICES REVIEW

(F2009/00174 )

RESOLVED ON THE MOTION OF COUNCILLOR SMART, seconded by COUNCILLOR
HUTCHENCE,

THAT:

1. A review of Council's external services be undertaken by appointing an external consultant within the next 60 days.
2. The General Manager obtain quotes from three consultants and the results be reported to a Briefing/Workshop Meeting in order to proceed with the review as soon as possible thereafter. Budget is to be determined by the quotes.
3. The review is to identify opportunities for increased productivity and cost savings (target minimum 5% of budget), and is to include all Branches of Council that deliver services to the community. The review is to make recommendations regarding services to be delivered, appropriate service levels, method of service delivery, and levels of staffing required to deliver the proposed services. Any opportunities for structural change that will assist in the improved delivery of services to the community should also be identified.
4. The review is to have regard for actions agreed by Council following the recently completed review of internal services, with savings identified to date being included in the above target.
